Unison Prayer of Confession

O God of Mystery, Father, Son and Holy Spirit: you know us better than we know ourselves. You see the illusions that our very blindness hides from our eyes. Yet in our hearts we are blessed with a portion of your Spirit of Wisdom, and we know how far we have fallen from a life lived in the grace of your loving Word. We prefer to appear pure rather than to admit our impurity. We prefer to feign love rather than to walk lovingly in one another's company. Send your convicting and forgiving Word into our hearts. Let the power of your Spirit reign in our hearts, bringing forgiveness, health and strength.

Amen.

In Remembrance

Do not stand at my grave and weep.
I am not there, I do not sleep.
I am a thousand winds that blow,
I am the diamond glint on snow,
I am the sunlight on ripened grain,
I am the gentle morning rain.
And when you wake in the morning's hush,
I am the sweet uplifting rush
of quiet birds in circled flight.
I am the soft stars that shine at night.
Do not stand at my grave and cry,
I am not there, I did not die.
