Sharing of the Bread and Cup

Concluding Prayer (In Unison):

We give thanks for this bread, fruit of the earth and hard work, a gift of the grace of God. We break it and share it, remembering the words and actions, gestures and glances, silences and self-offered life of the teacher from Nazareth. And we give thanks for the fruit of the vine, for the joy of communion, for alliances that endure in the search for justice and wholeness.

We take the cup, knowing we are part of a community-people renewing its covenant with life.

Hymn 488 I Was There to Hear Your Borne Cry WATERLIFE

"I was there to hear your borne cry; I'll be there when you are old. I rejoiced the day you were baptized to see your life unfold. I was there when you were but a child with a faith to suit you well; in a blaze of light you wandered off to find where demons dwell."

"When you heard the wonder of the Word, I was there to cheer you on. You were raised to praise the living Lord to whom you now belong. If you find someone to share your time and you join your hearts as one, I'll be there to make your verses rhyme from dusk till rising sun."

"In the middle ages of your life, not too old, no longer young. I'll be there to guide you through the night, complete what I've begun. When the evening gently closes in and you shut your weary eyes, I'll be there as I have always been with just one more surprise."

"I was there to hear your borne cry; I'll be there when you are old. I rejoiced the day you were baptized to see your life unfold."

PREPARATION

Silent Meditation     Psalm 26

Vindicate me, O LORD, for I have walked in my integrity, and I have trusted in the LORD without wavering. Prove me, O LORD, and try me; test my heart and mind. For your steadfast love is before my eyes, and I walk in faithfulness to you. I do not sit with the worthless, nor do I consort with hypocrites; I hate the company of evildoers, and will not sit with the wicked. I wash my hands in innocence, and go around your altar, O LORD, singing aloud a song of thanksgiving, and telling all your wondrous deeds. O LORD, I love the house in which you dwell, and the place where your glory abides. Do not sweep me away with sinners, nor my life with the bloodthirsty, those in whose hands are evil devices, and whose right hands are full of bribes. But as for me, I walk in my integrity; redeem me, and be gracious to me. My foot stands on level ground; in the great congregation I will bless the LORD.

Greetings and Announcements

Introit

Call to Worship (In Unison)

As we gather around the Word, font, and table, we pray for the faith of children. We pray for trust, humility, and kindness. We pray for wonder, imagination, and creativity. Let the little children come to me, Jesus said, for it is to such as these that the kingdom of God belongs.

Hymn 20     All Things Bright and Beautiful     ROYAL OAK

REFRAIN: All things bright and beautiful, all creatures great and small, all things wise and wonderful, the Lord God made them all.

Each little flower that opens, each little bird that sings, God made their glowing colors; God made their tiny wings.

REFRAIN

The purple headed mountain, the river running by, the sunset, and the morning that brightens up the sky.

REFRAIN

God gave us eyes to see them, and lips that we might tell how great is God Almighty, who has made all things well.

CONFESSION AND PARDON

Unison Prayer of Confession

United in your love, O God, we are one body across the globe. We are branches of one family whose roots run in the waters of grace. Still, we do not act like one body. We find ways to distance ourselves into groups of “us” and “them.” Forgive us, uniting God, and by your forgiveness, challenge us to tend to each other’s wounds. (Time of Silence)

Assurance of Pardon

Response of Praise No. 581     Gloria Patri

Statement of Faith—Apostles’ Creed

Pastor: Let us confess the faith of our Baptism...

All: I believe in God, the Father almighty, Maker of heaven and earth, And in Jesus Christ his only Son, our Lord; who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, Born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried;

He descended into hell; the third day he rose again from the dead; He ascended into heaven, and sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty; From thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead. I believe in the Holy Ghost; the holy catholic church; the communion of saints; The forgiveness of sins; the resurrection of the body; And life everlasting. Amen.

Please welcome our new Director of Music Ministry

My name is Kamilla Ozman and I am delighted to be given the opportunity to serve this congregation as Director of Music Ministries. As the daughter of a church organist/choir director, I knew at a very young age that music would be my life's calling. After attending Concordia College, I began a lifetime career as a music educator. After retiring from the William Floyd School District in Mastic Beach, New York, I have continued to remain busy conducting, accompanying, teaching, and performing. Currently, I am an adjunct professor at Hofstra University, teaching Choral Methods and supervising student teachers.

In the Fall of 2013, I created the East End Women's Choir. In fact, several members of the choir at Westhampton Beach Presbyterian have sung with this group or are currently singing with the group. I look forward to my work with the singers and choirs at Westhampton Presbyterian and would like to encourage others to join us.

A Note from Presbyterian Women

Join us for a Potluck luncheon/meeting on Wednesday, October 13th at noon. Please join us in the Parish Hall for fellowship, food and discussion on upcoming events.

When Masks are required

Please take note that masks are required while singing. We also ask if you are unvaccinated to please wear your mask at all times while in the church building and sanctuary. If you do not have one, there are masks readily available. Thank you for your cooperation and patience during this time.

October Tidings

Your October newsletter has been mailed, emailed and in the entryway of the sanctuary. All are welcome to email an article for the monthly Tidings.

CROP Walk

CROP Walk is coming up on Sunday, October 17. We will have three walks to choose from: a half mile stroll down to the duck pond and back for small children with their parents, a two mile walk through town to St. Mark's Episcopal Church and back, and for the adventurous, a six mile walk over the bridges on Dune Road.

To support the walk, give a donation to one of the walkers. You could give cash, but a check is better, made out to CWS/CROP or to Westhampton Presbyterian with CROP in the Memo line. You can also give electronically by going to <crophungerwalk.org> and supporting a particular walker or the church.

As to why give, Church World Service raised nearly eight million dollars last year to help the hungry, resettle refugees, clean up after the Haiti earthquake and Hurricane Ida. Remember, 25% of our donations come back to our community through our local food pantry at the Roman Catholic church.

Walkers who have signed up already are Chris Haddad, Pat Speed, Gale and Pete Seidler, Lynne Jones, Cheryl VanTuyle, Janet Hann, Gini Wagner, Jessica Howard, Kimet Speed, and Donna Williams. Please see them in church and make your pledge. All money should come in by the day of the walk.

Peace & Global Witness Offering and Your impact

Equipping Peacemakers in Congregations and Around the World. A gift to the Peace & Global Witness Offering enables the church to promote the Peace of Christ by addressing systems of conflict and injustice across the world. Individual congregations are encouraged to utilize up to 25% of this Offering to connect with the global witness of Christ's peace. Mid councils retain an additional 25% for ministries of peace and reconciliation. The remaining 50% is used by the Presbyterian Mission Agency to advocate for peace and justice in cultures of violence, including our own, through collaborative projects of education and Christian witness.
