Silent Meditation 1 Samuel 4: 12-20

As she continued praying before the LORD, Eli observed her mouth. Hannah was praying silently; only her lips moved, but her voice was not heard; therefore Eli thought she was drunk. So Eli said to her, "How long will you make a drunken spectacle of yourself? Put away your wine." But Hannah answered, "No, my lord, I am a woman deeply troubled; I have drunk neither wine nor strong drink, but I have been pouring out my soul before the LORD. Do not regard your servant as a worthless woman, for I have been speaking out of my great anxiety and vexation all this time." Then Eli answered, "Go in peace; the God of Israel grant the petition you have made to him." And she said, "Let your servant find favor in your sight." Then the woman went to her quarters, ate and drank with her husband,^u and her countenance was sad no longer. They rose early in the morning and worshiped before the LORD; then they went back to their house at Ramah. Elkanah knew his wife Hannah, and the LORD remembered her. In due time Hannah conceived and bore a son. She named him Samuel, for she said, "I have asked him of the LORD."

*Call to Worship

One: Let us worship God, our source of life.

All: God awakens us from the dust of the earth.

One: Let us worship God, our sovereign protector.

All: God is at our right hand, and we shall not be moved.

One: Let us worship God with our hearts and be glad,

All: for in God's presence there is fullness of joy.

CONFESSION AND PARDON

*Unison Prayer of Confession

You are the God of all people, O Lord, the creator of all things good. Forgive us when we fail to see the good. We are searching for your presence and grasping for your grace, unable to believe that we cannot be separated from your love. Forgive us, God of mercy, and through Christ our redeemer, free us to try again.
