PREPARATION

Silent Meditation

- Psalm 118: 26-29

The Sovereign is God, and God has given us light. Bind the festal procession with branches, up to the horns of the altar. You are my God, and I will give thanks to you; you are my God, I will extol you. O give thanks to God, for God is good, for God's steadfast love endures forever.

SLEETH

*Responsive Call to Worship

One: Lent began in the wilderness; it concludes in Jerusalem.

All: We now come near to the end of one story. Another will soon begin.

One: We have followed Jesus this far; today we remember how he faced betrayal, falseness, rejection, and torment.

All: And we witness, once more, that he taught and walked in love through every step of the journey.

*Hymn 196

“All Glory, Laud, and Honor”

VALET WILL ICH DIR GEBEN

CONFESSION AND PARDON

*Unison Prayer of Confession

O God, you know us well. We are quick to speak of faith, but slow to live it fully. We shout "hosanna" as Jesus approaches, as did the people of Jerusalem many years ago; but we do not want him to come too close ~ not close enough to really see. We are quick to claim faith in Jesus as our Lord and Savior; but, like the throng who greeted his entry into Jerusalem, we are fickle, slow to live fully and everywhere as faithful disciples. We know where we fail. We are quick to want the blessings of faithfulness; but, like the Twelve who spent the last week with him, we are slow to accept the pain and suffering of authentic Christ-like living. Forgive our weakness and fear, Amen. (Time of Silence)
