PREPARATION

Silent Meditation Genesis 15:1-6

After these things the word of the LORD came to Abram in a vision, "Do not be afraid, Abram, I am your shield; your reward shall be very great." But Abram said, "O Lord GOD, what will you give me, for I continue childless, and the heir of my house is Eliezer of Damascus?" And Abram said, "You have given me no offspring, and so a slave born in my house is to be my heir." But the word of the LORD came to him, "This man shall not be your heir; no one but your very own issue shall be your heir." He brought him outside and said, "Look toward heaven and count the stars, if you are able to count them." Then he said to him, "So shall your descendants be." And he believed the LORD; and the LORD²³ reckoned it to him as righteousness.

Unison Prayer of Confession

Loving God, you have formed a covenant with us, committing yourself to us and inviting us to walk with you. Help us to find our way back. Give us faith so that we can hold the hand you have extended to us in Jesus Christ. (Time of Silence)

Presbyterian Walkers/Hikers

Let's get back to walking on Saturday, March 26th. There are two areas in Greenport to begin exploring. The first is Ruth Oliva Preserve at Dam Pond located at 11855 Rt. 48, Greenport. Bring binoculars and see if we can spot waterfowl. The second is Inlet Pond County Park at 65275 Rt. 48, Greenport. The trail will lead us to a fresh water pond with Long Island Sound to the north.

Dress appropriately for the weather and hiking in the woods. Wear light color pants and tuck them in your socks, comfortable hiking boots or walking shoes, hat, sunglasses and sunscreen. Since we are traveling to Greenport, we will have our walk and then go out to lunch.

Meet at the church parking lot to carpool no later than 8:30 am. For info contact: Janet Hann H#631-288-6884 or C#631-871-7240 —Rain will cancel the hike—
