PREPARATION

Silent Meditation Psalm 118:14-24

The LORD is my strength and my might; he has become my salvation. There are glad songs of victory in the tents of the righteous: "The right hand of the LORD does valiantly; the right hand of the LORD is exalted; the right hand of the LORD does valiantly." I shall not die, but I shall live, and recount the deeds of the LORD. The LORD has punished me severely, but he did not give me over to death. Open to me the gates of righteousness, that I may enter through them and give thanks to the LORD. This is the gate of the LORD; the righteous shall enter through it. I thank you that you have answered me and have become my salvation. The stone that the builders rejected has become the chief cornerstone. This is the LORD's doing; it is marvelous in our eyes. This is the day that the LORD has made; let us rejoice and be glad in it.

Welcome Rev. Susan Rack to the pulpit this morning!

Rev. Susan Joseph Rack grew up as a Lutheran in Milwaukee, WI. She graduated from St. Olaf College with a bachelor's degree in Psychology & Religion (with a minor in dance) after which she spent an extra semester of study at Birzeit University in Palestine and Hebrew University in Jerusalem. Susan graduated from Princeton Theological Seminary with a Master of Divinity, and a Master of Theology in Old Testament. She served 3 summers as chaplain and curriculum writer for Johnsonburg Presbyterian Camp and Conference Center during her seminary years. Susan is also a trained Domestic Violence Responder, a Non-Violent Communication practitioner and an authorized Enneagram teacher.

Susan was ordained as a Minister of Word and Sacrament of the PCUSA in 2001. She served as an Associate Pastor for Education in Wilmington DE, then became a solo pastor of a small out-of-the-box church in NJ for 17 years. Her passion in ministry is curating spiritual growth experiences in both Christian and Interfaith worship, and retreat settings. She has also been instrumental in building 2 outdoor labyrinths... to date. All this is in service of encouraging Jesus followers toward social justice action.

Susan enjoys singing, hiking, gardening and cooking and is a formidable Hand and Foot Canasta player. She and her Reverend husband Paul Rack like to pack a picnic and canoe to a quiet spot to sip wine and read under a good shade tree. Young passers-by have commented "aren't they adorable." She has two 30-something sons and a daughter-in-law—Noah, David and Kristin; and 2 cats—Hilda (von Bingen) and Julia (of Norwich).

Susan is honored to be asked to join in worship with you this Easter Sunday!
