Concluding Prayer (In Unison):

Let us pray:

God of wind, rain, silence and flame,

when we go out into the world

and again find ourselves hungry for something better,

remind us of this meal.

Remind us how we came to this table hungry,

and how you met us in this ordinary bread and ordinary cup,

to claim us, bind our wandering hearts together,

and remind us of your coming day. In your name we give praise, and in your name we pray. Amen.

God of wind and fire,

when you send your Spirit, we are created anew.

God of mighty oceans and still waters,

when we receive your baptism, we are born anew.

God of bread and wine,

when we eat at your table, we are nourished anew.

So pour out your Spirit

Let sacred waters flow

Fill us with holy food.

May our hearts and our hands be open wide

to receive your gifts of life.

Responsive Prayer of Confession

God of wind and flame, you call us to be your voices in this world and we stay silent.

You call us to be your hands in this world

and we keep them hidden.

You call us to be your feet in this world

and we go our own way.

When we meet those who are doubting

and say nothing, forgive us.

When we meet those who need your touch

and do nothing, forgive us.

When we are called to take up your cross

and carry nothing, forgive us.

Breathe new life into us; bring freedom to our lives that we might declare with heart and soul and voice that you are our Lord and our God. (time of silence) Amen.

Affirmation of Faith

We trust in God the Holy Spirit, everywhere the giver and renewer of life. The Spirit justifies us by grace through faith, sets us free to accept ourselves and to love God and neighbor, and binds us together with all believers in the one body of Christ, the Church. The same Spirit who inspired the prophets and apostles rules our faith and life in Christ through Scripture, engages us through the Word proclaimed, claims us in the waters of baptism, feeds us with the bread of life and the cup of salvation, and calls women and men to all ministries of the church. In a broken and fearful world the Spirit gives us courage to pray without ceasing, to witness among all peoples to Christ as Lord and Savior, to unmask idolatries in Church and culture, to hear the voices of peoples long silenced, and to work with others for justice, freedom, and peace. In gratitude to God, empowered by the Spirit, we strive to serve Christ in our daily tasks and to live holy and joyful lives, even as we
