Sharing of the Bread and Cup

Concluding Prayer (In Unison):

We give thanks for this bread, fruit of the earth and hard work, a gift of the grace of God. We break it and share it, remembering the words and actions, gestures and glances, silences and self-offered life of the teacher from Nazareth. And we give thanks for the fruit of the vine, for the joy of communion, for alliances that endure in the search for justice and wholeness. We take the cup, knowing we are part of a community-people renewing its covenant with life.

PREPARATION

Silent Meditation Genesis 2:20-24

But for Adam no suitable helper was found. So the LORD God caused the man to fall into a deep sleep; and while he was sleeping, he took one of the man's ribs^[b] and then closed up the place with flesh. Then the LORD God made a woman from the rib^[c] he had taken out of the man, and he brought her to the man. The man said, "This is now bone of my bones and flesh of my flesh; she shall be called 'woman', for she was taken out of man." That is why a man leaves his father and mother and is united to his wife, and they become one flesh.

CONFESSION AND PARDON

Unison Prayer of Confession

God who made flesh, bone of our bone. We confess that we think we can go it alone, that we try to do it all, that in doing so, we neglect the gifts you have given us: The bone of our bone, the flesh of our flesh, the bodies you created. Call us to community. Remind us that in you we are one. Awake in us a respect for one another, and celebrate with us the diversity within that unity.

Affirmation of Faith: Col. 1:15-20

Jesus Christ is the image of the invisible God, the firstborn of all creation; in him all things in heaven and on earth were created, things visible and invisible. All things have been created through him and for him. He himself is before all things, and in him all things hold together. He is head of the body, the church; he is the beginning, the firstborn of the dead, so that he might come to have first place in everything. For in him all the fullness of God was pleased to dwell, and through him God was pleased to reconcile all things, whether on earth or in heaven, by making peace through the blood of his cross. Amen.
