SUNDAY WORSHIP AT 10 A.M.
SUNDAY SCHOOL FOLLOWING CHILDREN'S MESSAGE

PREPARATION

Silent Meditation Jeremiah 31: 31-34

“The days are coming,” declares the LORD, “when I will make a new covenant with the people of Israel and with the people of Judah. It will not be like the covenant I made with their ancestors when I took them by the hand to lead them out of Egypt, because they broke my covenant, though I was a husband to them,” declares the LORD. “This is the covenant I will make with the people of Israel after that time,” declares the LORD. “I will put my law in their minds and write it on their hearts. I will be their God, and they will be my people. No longer will they teach their neighbor, or say to one another, ‘Know the LORD,’ because they will all know me, from the least of them to the greatest,” declares the LORD. “For I will forgive their wickedness and will remember their sins no more.”

Call to Worship

One: We lift up our eyes to the hills; from where will our help come?

All: Our help comes from the Lord, who made heaven and earth.

One: In. praise and with thanksgiving, we gather as one body, with song and with prayer.

All: The Lord will keep our going out and our coming in from this time and forevermore. Come, let us worship God.

*Hymn 175 “Seek Ye First” LAFFERTY

CONFESSION AND PARDON

Unison Prayer of Confession

Grace-filled God, we confess that we pursue our own needs, neglecting the needs of others. We pursue our own desires, while slowly destroying the gifts of your creation. We deflect the call to ministry, ignoring the cries of those in need. We are drawn to proclaim the gospel, yet live it out only at our convenience. Have mercy on us, O God. Open our eyes to the truth of the gospel that, whatever the time or wherever we are, we may fully embody your love and justice for all the world. (Time of Silence)
