PREPARATION

Silent Meditation Acts 2:22-28

“Fellow Israelites, listen to this: Jesus of Nazareth was a man accredited by God to you by miracles, wonders and signs, which God did among you through him, as you yourselves know. This man was handed over to you by God’s deliberate plan and foreknowledge; and you, with the help of wicked men, put him to death by nailing him to the cross. But God raised him from the dead, freeing him from the agony of death, because it was impossible for death to keep its hold on him. David said about him: “I saw the Lord always before me. Because he is at my right hand, I will not be shaken. Therefore my heart is glad and my tongue rejoices; my body also will rest in hope, because you will not abandon me to the realm of the dead, you will not let your holy one see decay. You have made known to me the paths of life; you will fill me with joy in your presence.”

Prelude

Greetings and Announcements

Ringling of the Bell

Introit

*Call to Worship

One: The good news resounds:

All: Christ is risen! Alleluia!

One: We celebrate the God who is our refuge.

All: In God’s presence there is gladness and rest.

One: God is always before us,

All: we shall not be shaken.

*Hymn 234 “Come, You Faithful, Raise the Strain” ST. KEVIN

CONFESSION AND PARDON

*Unison Prayer of Confession:

Embodied God, you pour out your Holy Spirit upon us, imbuing us with the grace and patience that you have shown us time and again. We experience your presence, but are quick to judge those who do not believe as we do. We look down on those who ask for proof, we scorn those who scoff at our faith. Forgive us and soften our hearts. Remind us of our own human doubts, that we might have compassion for all and freely share your grace.

(Time of Silence)
