PREPARATION

Silent Meditation Mark 7: 24-31

From there he set out and went away to the region of Tyre. He entered a house and did not want anyone to know he was there. Yet he could not escape notice, but a woman whose little daughter had an unclean spirit immediately heard about him, and she came and bowed down at his feet. Now the woman was a Gentile, of Syrophenician origin. She begged him to cast the demon out of her daughter. He said to her, "Let the children be fed first, for it is not fair to take the children's food and throw it to the dogs." But she answered him, "Sir, even the dogs under the table eat the children's crumbs." Then he said to her, "For saying that, you may go – the demon has left your daughter." So she went home, found the child lying on the bed, and the demon gone.

Call to Worship

One: Trust in the Lord,

All: who made heaven and earth;

One: trust in the Lord,

All: who loves every part of it.

One: trust in the Lord,

All: who cares for those in need;

One: trust in the Lord,

All: who leads us to do the same.

One: Let us worship God,

All: who shows us the way.

CONFESSION AND PARDON

Unison Prayer of Confession

God of Mercy,

You keep an eye out for those who dwell on the margins of life. We confess we fail to keep our eyes open for those on the margins. We have been silent when we should have spoken up in the face of injustice. Our generosity to others does not match what you offer us. Your love for us shows us another way to live. Forgive us for thinking of ourselves first. Help us to join in your work, mending what is broken. May our trust in You guide us to care for our neighbors nearby and the ones we do not know yet. Renew our commitment to show others the kindness and forgiveness we are granted through the grace of Jesus Christ. (Time for silent confession)
