Greetings and AnnouncementsRingling of the Bell

Introit "Oh Bless the Lord My Soul" Aaron Williams

Call to Worship

A wandering people wondered what their new life would be like,
and Moses said:

You shall love the Lord with all your heart.

Generations later, leaders argued over which rules were most important, and Jesus reminded them:

You shall love the Lord with all your soul.

And in this world that so often feels broken,
we recognize God's call:

You shall love the Lord with all your might.

With heart, soul, and might, let us worship God.

CONFESSION AND PARDON

Unison Prayer of Confession:

Holy God, you call us to love you with all our heart, and with all our soul, and with all our mind.

Forgive us when selfishness takes up too much of our heart, when worry seems to crowd wonder out of our soul, when fear causes us to close our minds to anything new.

Holy God, you call us to bear with one another in love.

Forgive us when we cannot love our neighbors.

Forgive us when we cannot love ourselves.

Assurance of Pardon

Now stand firm in your faith, covered by the saving grace of God and ready to proclaim the gospel of peace. In the name of Jesus Christ, you are forgiven! Thanks be to God.

Response of Praise 581 "Gloria Patri"

Exchange of Christ's Peace

L: The peace of Christ be with you. P: And also with you.

Sermon Rev. Candace Whitman

Affirmation of Faith

Adapted from the Confession of 1967, 9.32-33

The life, death, resurrection, and promised coming of Jesus Christ has set the pattern for the church's mission. His human life involves the church in the common life of all people. His service to men and women commits the church to work for every form of human well-being. His suffering makes the church sensitive to all human suffering so that it sees the face of Christ in the faces of persons in every kind of need. His crucifixion discloses to the church God's judgment on the inhumanity that marks human relations, and the awful consequences of the church's own complicity in injustice. In the power of the risen Christ and the hope of his coming, the church sees the promise of God's renewal of human life in society and of God's
